

2up2down - Design work in progress.....

Since September we've been concentrating on the bakery site. Working in three teams we've started to develop our ideas about what could go where, starting to think about materials, and thinking about how we can make the development environmentally sustainable.....

