THE OFFICIAL GUIDE
15-24 JUNE 2007

BRADFORD
one landscape many views

//Bradford is once more celebrating Architecture Week with a series of events, films and debates reflecting this year's theme 'How Green Is Our Space'

//Sustainable development and its role in the future of our city landscape will be explored through the exciting programme. Architecture Week 2007 builds on the success of last year's events; introducing new artists, practitioners and ways of thinking to a place boasting ambitious regeneration plans.

//Bradford Centre Regeneration is proud to once more be sponsoring a superb week of thought-provoking and dynamic activity.

//To find out more about the events during the week please visit www.bradfordnewcity.com/architectureweek

ALL WEEK

//TOUR

iTours

To download head to www.bradfordnewcity.com/architectureweek or iTunes during Architecture Week. The films will also be shown on the Big Screen in Centenary Square.

//EXHIBITION

The Best Of Stash

15-25 JUNE, 08.00-20.00, BBC BIG SCREEN
CENTENARY SQUARE

STASH is presenting to Bradford its most innovative and commercial animation, VFX and motion graphics. A selection of their exciting work will be showing on the BBC Big Screen throughout Architecture Week. For more information and times head to www.stashmedia.tv

FRIDAY 15 JUNE

//FILM

Soylent Green

FRI 15 JUNE, 20.00,
NATIONAL MEDIA MUSEUM

A dystopian vision from 1973 – Charlton Heston and company live in a world which has followed unsustainable development for years and must now live with its dire consequences. Check www.nationalmediamuseum.org.uk for more details and showing times.

SATURDAY 16 JUNE

//OUTSIDE

An Urban Picnic

SAT 16 JUNE, 15.00-17.30, CENTENARY SQUARE

Architects have been challenged to design a picnic that invites and increases social interaction between professionals and the public. Come along with your picnic, loungers and games, join in with debate and have some fun with friends, family and the architectural crowd.

SUNDAY 17 JUNE

//OUTSIDE

Kala Dol

SUN 17 JUNE, 14.00 – 16.00, LISTER PARK

Kala Sangam is a Bradford-based South Asian Arts Company. In Kala Dol, they present an event to celebrate the arrival of summer amidst the beautiful green landscape of Lister Park. Featuring performer Sukha Singh Mahilpuria.

MON 18//TUE 19 JUNE

//OUTSIDE

Oases

MON 18 JUNE, 11.00-15.00, RAWSON PLACE

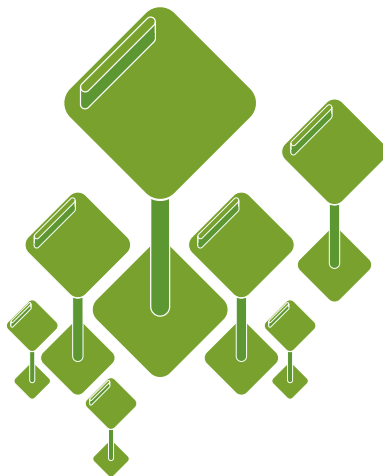

Sit for a moment and let yourself drift – an 'Oases' of grass and plant life is set to transform an urban thoroughfare into an unexpected green and tranquil paradise.

//FILM

An Inconvenient Truth

MON 18 JUNE, 20.15, TUE 19 JUNE 17.45
NATIONAL MEDIA MUSEUM

An insight into Al Gore's passionate and inspirational crusade to expose myths and misconceptions that surround global warming – with the worldwide 'Live Earth' concerts imminent, a screening of this film seems more apt than ever.

TUESDAY 19 JUNE

//DEBATE

EcoverCity

TUE 19 JUNE, 9.30-16.00,
THE NORCROFT CENTRE

A one day symposium exploring Education and the Environment at the University of Bradford's 'green' Norcroft Building; international speakers include Leith Sharp from Harvard, Nick Dodd from URBED and Gary Lawrence of ARUP, who will lead talks and debates guaranteed to inform and challenge.

WED 20//THU 21 JUNE

//FILM

Who Killed The Electric Car?

WED 20 JUNE 17.45, THU 21 JUNE 17.45
NATIONAL MEDIA MUSEUM

In 1996, electric cars began to appear on roads all over California. They were quiet and fast, produced no exhaust and ran without gasoline. Ten years later, these cars were destroyed. Why? This documentary explores the hidden hand that destroyed America's sustainable drive.

THURSDAY 21 JUNE

//WORKSHOP

Bradford Beats

THU 21 JUNE, 10.00-16.00, CENTENARY SQUARE

Mitra Memarzia, Babis Alexiadis and local artist Cage One collaborate to create stencil and graffiti based artwork with Bradford's young people. All are welcome to come and be a part of this project at the heart of the city in Centenary Square.

// DEBATE

BBC/RIBA Radio Debate
'Leeds and Bradford, A Tale of Two Cities-
Which Way Now?'

THU 21 JUNE, 18.00-20.00,
THE VENUE, LEEDS COLLEGE OF MUSIC

Debate to be recorded for broadcast on BBC Radio Leeds. Five panellists will discuss the different approaches to city planning and regeneration in Leeds and Bradford – the commercially – led approach versus the masterplanned approach. Members of the public are welcome to join the audience for the debate.

FRIDAY 22 JUNE

// PERFORMANCE

A Sociable Symphony For The Well Worn Wayfarers

FRI 22 JUNE, 17.00-19.00,
BRADFORD INTERCHANGE

Get your last journey home of the week off to an enjoyable start! Our Architecture Week mixtape will be played in the Bradford Interchange. Mixing is a democratic act: e-mail thecitysings@gmail.com with your favourite song – why you want to hear it and when your train departs – to become part of this unique event.

FRI 22//SAT 23//SUN 24 JUNE

// FILM

Black Gold

FRI 22 JUNE 13.45, SAT 23 JUNE 13.45,
SUN 24 JUNE 13.45,
NATIONAL MEDIA MUSEUM

As our cities move towards a café culture, questions about the international coffee trade become increasingly prevalent. This 2006 documentary film directed by two British brothers, Mark and Nick Francis, will shake our notions of sustainability and guarantee your coffee will never taste quite the same again.
